

A large flock of birds, possibly terns, is captured in flight over a field of yellow flowers. The birds are scattered across the sky, creating a sense of movement and activity. The background shows a clear blue sky and distant hills. The overall scene is bright and natural.

H & H Outfitters, owned and operated by Alex and Zeke Hayes, has spent the last 17 years exceeding their client's expectations and developing a reputation as one of the finest in the business.

Cordoba Province, found in central Argentina, offers the best dove shooting in the world. The mild climate, extensive agriculture, and perfect roosting conditions produce an ever-increasing population of doves.

H & H Outfitters, located in northern Cordoba, provides the finest dove shooting in Argentina.

We Own the Land

H & H Outfitters own and control over 20,000 acres of the best land in the heart of the prime roosting areas in Argentina. The roosting ground is a heavily wooded area with native trees called Piquillin, frequently crossed by natural streams, producing an ideal habitat for the reproduction of doves. Vast and fertile valleys that furnish immense quantities of grain surround these refuges. In addition, Alex and Zeke plant crops exclusively for doves on their land and use no-till methods which provide consistent and unlimited amounts of food. By practicing these game management techniques, we are the only Outfitter in the area that offers excellent shooting throughout the entire year.

World Class Service

A typical shooting day with H & H Outfitters starts after a sumptuous breakfast, with departure to the fields by 8 AM. The shooting fields at each lodge are carefully rotated and rested to assure maximum bird numbers. The driving distance to the fields ranges between 15 and 50 minutes in our new 15 passenger vans with air conditioning, refreshments and two-way radios. Each client shoots with their own experienced professional bird boy, who will provide shells, act as a loader, retrieve downed birds and keep cool drinks at the ready. Shooting continues until noon, when the group gathers in a shady grove of trees for a traditional Argentine asado (barbeque) complemented with salads, gourmet desserts and fantastic wines. After lunch and an optional siesta, the shoot continues until approximately 6 PM. Upon returning to the lodge, relax with drinks and hearty hors d'oeuvres while preparing for dinner. Each lodge has professional massage therapists on staff to help you unwind and relax at the end of the day.

Our Game Bird

The eared dove is the most prominent game bird in the area. A recent Argentine Game and Natural Resources study estimates the dove population in the area to be upwards of 32 million birds. The eared dove is similar in size and appearance to the North American mourning dove. Its distinguishing characteristic of flying throughout the day ensures the opportunity for nonstop shooting. It's not uncommon to shoot 2 to 3 cases of shells per day.
